

Clarus Capital Closes $20 Million Loan Facility Backed by Data Center Information Technology Equipment

Clarus Capital Adds Mission Critical IT Assets to Investment Portfolio.

Boston, Massachusetts – Clarus Capital ("Clarus") announced today that it has completed a new loan facility for a diversified, value-add business services provider. Clarus' financing will support the Company's acquisition of new data center assets and further enhances its competitive position as a market leader in the data processing space.

Clarus CEO Steve O'Leary added "This was another example of our ability to deliver equipment finance facilities of significant scale. Our client has a long track record of success, and we were pleased to provide a capital solution tailored to meet their corporate financing objectives. Clarus continues to structure and execute equipment transactions up to $30 million for its own balance sheet, with reliability and certainty of close. We look forward to additional opportunities to support the Company with other future capital expenditure needs."
